

NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity, NRCHA World's Greatest Horseman AND NRHA Futurity Championship Saddles to be Auctioned to Benefit Rein In Cancer

2011-08-03

Three of the western industry's leading riders have teamed up with Bob's Custom Saddles to raise money for Rein In Cancer. Each of the men have recently won a major event, and each saddle that they won their title with will be auctioned off at a major event in 2011, with all proceeds going to Rein In Cancer. The first stop will be the biggest little city in the world – Reno, Nevada – for the National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity. Reigning Champion Tucker Robinson, who won his first Snaffle Bit Futurity Championship on Stylish Little Oak, owned by San Juan Ranch, will be on hand to auction his saddle.

The second saddle will be offered at auction during the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship Show. Russell Dilday and his horse, Topsails Rien Maker, made history when they won their third NRCHA World's Greatest Horseman Championship in San Angelo, Texas. "Not only are we auctioning the saddle, but Topsails Rien Maker's co-owner, Kevin Cantrelle, has agreed to match the auction proceeds up to $10,000," noted Dilday.

The third and final saddle, that of 2010 National Reining Horse Association Futurity Champions Jordan Larson and Spooks Gotta Whiz, will be auctioned off during the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Spooks Gotta Whiz is owned by Michell Anne Kimball.

"We really appreciate Russell, Tucker, Jordan, and their owners for their generosity. We also thank Bob's Custom Saddles, who will be giving each of these men another saddle to use," noted Shorty Koger, co-founder of Rein In Cancer. "We're excited that these saddles will be offered to the public. We're confident that this will raise a lot for our cause."

Thanks for the Memories

NRCHA SNAFFLE BIT FUTURITY, NRCHA WORLD'S GREATEST HORSEMAN AND NRHA FUTURITY CHAMPIONSHIP SADDLES TO BE AUCTIONED TO BENEFIT REIN IN CANCER

Three of the western industry's leading riders have teamed up with Bob's Custom Saddles to raise money for Rein In Cancer. Each of the men have recently won a major event, and each saddle that they won their title with will be auctioned off at a major event in 2011, with all proceeds going to Rein In Cancer.

The first stop will be the biggest little city in the world – Reno, Nevada – for the National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity. Reigning Champion Tucker Robinson, who won his first Snaffle Bit Futurity Championship on Stylish Little Oak, owned by San Juan Ranch, will be on hand to auction his saddle.

The second saddle will be offered at auction during the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship Show. Russell Dilday and his horse, Topsails Rien Maker, made history when they won their third NRCHA World's Greatest Horseman Championship in San Angelo, Texas. "Not only are we auctioning the saddle, but Topsails Rien Maker's co-owner, Kevin Cantrelle, has agreed to match the auction proceeds up to $10,000," noted Dilday.

The third and final saddle, that of 2010 National Reining Horse Association Futurity Champions Jordan Larson and Spooks Gotta Whiz, will be auctioned off during the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Spooks Gotta Whiz is owned by Michell Anne Kimball.

"We really appreciate Russell, Tucker, Jordan, and their owners for their generosity. We also thank Bob's Custom Saddles, who will be giving each of these men another saddle to use," noted Shorty Koger, co-founder of Rein In Cancer. "We're excited that these saddles will be offered to the public. We're confident that this will raise a lot for our cause."

2010 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion
Tucker Robinson

2011 NRCHA World's Greatest Horseman
Russell Dilday

2010 NRHA Futurity Champion
Jordan Larson

Rein In Cancer was created to recognize the willingness of the horse community to help with supporting care for cancer patients. Since its inception in 2007, Rein In Cancer has raised over half a million dollars and is proud to have helped fund treatment and to have endowed the Shirley Bowman Nutrition Clinic at the OU Cancer Institute in Oklahoma City. For more information on Rein In Cancer, visit www.reinincancer.com, e-mail us at info@reinincancer.com or call 580-759-2572.

